A PLACE ON DEBBIE ABRAHAM'S MYSTERY CUSHION CLUB 2012

WIN!

To celebrate the launch of Debbie Abrahams' latest Mystery Blanket Club 2012 we are offering one lucky reader the chance to win a place on the new and much sought after Mystery Cushion Club 2012 for next spring.

Debbie Abraham's successful Mystery Blanket Club is now in its fifth year and subscriptions for the 2012 club are available from now until 31 December, so hurry and don't miss your spot! Subscribers to the Mystery Blanket Club receive (over ten months) patterns and materials to knit individual squares that join together to make a fabulous blanket, with the theme of the pattern being revealed as the blanket takes shape.

Last year, Debbie launched a brand new venture, the Mystery Cushion Club, in the same vein as the Blanket Club, but on a smaller scale if the blanket seems a bit daunting. Launching in Spring 2012, we have one free place on next year's Mystery Cushion Club to give away to a very lucky reader.

Something to look forward to for next year!

THE YARN TO MAKE THE FAIRISLE SNOOD

Designed by Suzie Lee, this versatile Fairisle snood is knitted in Louisa Harding Grace, a gorgeous 50% wool and silk mix yarn, and can be worn either pulled down over the shoulders or casually around the neck like a big, snug ruff – either way head-turning and will keep you warm and stylish this winter!
