EDITOR'S LETTER

'A Feast Of Treats'

What a week! There's the last of our four-part, pull-out centenary recipe collection on pages 33 to 44. The delicious dishes, painstakingly researched and remade by our fantastic cookery team, bring the total number of tasty trips down culinary memory lane to 100. But don't spend all your time in the kitchen, because this week we're back at Alexandra Palace at The Knitting And Stitching Show (see page 12 for details) and better still, not only can you visit us at our stand, you can also see a specially selected collection of our wonderful centenary exhibition portraits and marvel at the extraordinary spectacle of the bunting you've been knitting for us over the past months (we're holding our breaths on confirmation of the world record. We'll let you know!). And, as if that wasn't enough, later in the month we've organised another wonderful day for you at RHS Garden Wisley. Have a look at page 12 to find out more — and see you soon.
